RE: For Immediate Release: TM Century Teams Up with Big Fish Productions

Big Fish Productions of Colorado has teamed up with TM Century's ImagingArsenal.Com to offer Big Fish products to stations and independent producers around the world. ImagingArsenal.com today released The Best Of Big Fish Volume #1. This CD-Rom has over 400 unique, and powerful elements, including music beds, prefab sweepers, transitions, sound beds, and a bunch of other useful FX.

In addition, Big Fish On Line, provides users with fresh bait every week. Stations get at least 15 new workparts every Monday. If you do the math, that's over 780 elements over the course of a year! Music beds, prefab sweepers, hits, segs, and anything else you need (we take requests).

After years of producing great imaging for stations from coast to coast, Ian Sturgeon saw the need for cutting edge production FX that everyone could afford. Ian started Big Fish Workparts in January of 2005, and it's already helping radio stations throughout the country stand out. Big Fish Workparts are powerful, affordable, and easy to use, so you can sound like a BIG fish...even if you're in a small or medium size pond.

"ImagingArsenal.com was designed to provide an outlet for the best producers around the world. Hundreds of stations are already using Big Fish Productions and, through ImagingArsenal.com, we hope to bring hundreds more aboard. To say that Ian Sturgeon's work is the great white shark of imaging is an understatement. He may be the best imaging guy on the planet today." said TM Century CEO David Graupner.
