TM Century Announces New Addition To International Team

DALLAS (April 28, 2003)- Dallas-based TM Century, Inc., today announced the addition of Jackson Cervantes to its network of international distributors. Ms. Cervantes will provide sales and marketing consultation to TM Century for markets in Latin America and Spain.

Cervantes joins TM Century from Radio Express, Inc. where she was Vice President and Sales Manager. She has over six years of experience as part of the sales team in the international division, working Latin America, Caribbean and Europe. At Radio Express, she was responsible for review and analysis of new product and production material, creating and executing marketing campaigns.

"It is a pleasure to welcome Jackson as she brings tremendous experience and expertise to the table," said Mary B. Adams, Director of International Sales and Marketing. "We have many exciting initiatives planned for Latin America and Spain and her experience will enable us to penetrate these markets."
